This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ORGANIZATION.

THE NEW-YORK LIBRARY CLUB was organized at Columbia College Library, June 18, 1885. The call for a meeting for such an organization was issued by Mr. Melvil Dewey. The persons present at this meeting were Henry M. Baird, D. D., Mrs. Joseph H. Rylance, née Coe, Max Cohen, Melvil Dewey, Mrs. Melvil Dewey, George Hannah, John MacMullen, Charles Alexander Nelson, William Thaddeus Peoples, Reuben Brooks Poole, Jacob Schwartz and William Augustus White.

A meeting of the Executive Committee was held September 11th, at "The Sagamore," Lake George, at the close of the A. L. A. Conference, when Richard Rogers Bowker was chosen president, and other officers were appointed.

The first regular meeting of the Club was held November 12, 1885, at Columbia College.

At this meeting there were about forty persons present; nineteen were elected to membership.

CONSTITUTION.

I. NAME.

This organization shall be called the New-York Library Club.

II. OBJECT.

Its object shall be to promote acquaintance and fraternal relations among librarians and those interested in library work; and by consultation and coöperation to increase the usefulness, and advance the interests, of the libraries of New-York and its vicinity.

III. MEMBERS.

Any person interested in library work and unanimously recommended for membership by the Executive Committee may be elected at any meeting, and all proposals for membership shall be referred to this Committee. The Secretary shall keep a record, in the case of each new member of the Club, of the person who shall have proposed said member.

IV. OFFICERS.

The officers of the Club shall be a President two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, who shall be elected by ballot annually at the regular meeting in May, and shall serve for one year from that time or until their successors are chosen.

The President shall preside at all meetings.

In the absence of the President, a Vice-President shall perform the duties of the office.

The Secretary shall keep a faithful record of all business transacted; shall give due notice of any election, appointment, meeting, or other business requiring the personal attention of any member; and shall have charge of the books, papers, and correspondence.

The Treasurer shall keep a full and accurate record of all receipts and disbursements and shall present a statement of accounts at each regular meeting of the Club, and an annual report at the annual meeting on the second Thursday in May. The Treasurer's account shall be closed on the 30th of April, which shall be the end of the fiscal year. He shall pay all bills against the Club after they have been certified by the chairman of the Executive Committee.

V. Executive Committee.

An Executive Committee of five shall be appointed by the President for the current year, to which the President, Secretary, and Treasurer shall be added as ex-officio members.

The first-named member shall be the chairman, and three members shall constitute a quorum.

It shall be the duty of the Committee to prepare questions for discussion by the Club; to consider and mature plans for the general work of the same; and to approve all bills before payment by the Treasurer.

The Executive Committee shall be empowered to spend money for the ordinary running expenses of the Club.

VI. Meetings.

There shall be regular meetings of the Club on the second Thursday of each October, November, January, March, and May, at such time and place as the Executive Committee may appoint.

The President shall call a special meeting of the Club on the written request of five members; but notice shall be sent to each member not less than a week before such meeting.

VII. Dues.

There shall be annual dues of one dollar, payable at or before the November meeting, and a fee of one dollar at joining, which shall be in lieu of the annual dues for the current year.

The fiscal year of the Club shall begin May 1st.

No debt or obligation shall be contracted by any committee, officer or member of the Club on its behalf.

VIII. Amendments.

All amendments to the Constitution shall be referred to the Executive Committee. which shall report thereon, and the same may be adopted by a three-fourths vote at a regular meeting.

Notice to members before action on such amendments shall state that "Action will be taken on Amendments to the Constitution."
